ON THE WEB

Information regarding the Leonard & Bina Ellen Gallery's current programming, events, previous exhibitions, permanent collection, publications, tour schedules and gallery hours is available on the Gallery's bilingual website at <http://ellengallery.concordia.ca/>

The website also includes WAYS OF THINKING, a section offering succinct and synthesized information on each of the Gallery's exhibitions. A general introduction to artists, areas of inquiry and ideas to reflect upon as well as suggested Internet links and bibliographic references allow visitors to gain a general understanding of artists' approaches to artmaking, the works featured in an exhibition and the curatorial framing adopted. Ways of Thinking's primary objective is to draw the public into the Gallery so that it can experience first hand the work in the exhibition and gain insight into the issues at work in contemporary exhibition making. Once an exhibition is over, its accompanying Ways of Thinking becomes an archived document in a database that remains available on our website and is of particular interest to students, teachers and researchers interested in the Gallery's exhibition program.

IGNITION

IGNITION is an annual, curated exhibition that features work by M.F.A. students in the Studio Arts program. It provides an up-and-coming generation of artists with a unique opportunity to present their work in the professional context of a gallery with a national and international profile.

Information about participating in this exhibition is distributed to eligible students in the autumn.

AWARDS

Starting in 2008, the Gallery will be awarding the ANN DUNCAN TRAVEL AND TUITION AWARD to an undergraduate student registered in either Studio Arts or Art History. This is an award that provides assistance with offsetting the costs of travel to a significant international event presenting contemporary art, such as an international biennial, as well as full-time tuition and fees.

The award will be given every two years and will alternate between Studio Arts and Art History.

Requirements and selection criteria will be posted on the Financial Aid and Awards website at faao.concordia.ca under Undergraduate Award Bulletins and on the Ellen Gallery website at ellengallery.concordia.ca from October 1st 2008.
